

Step 4 it

STEP 4 IT

What is in:

- How to make your educational choice
- Do's and Don'ts on a CV
- Working in another country
- Tips and tricks
- The European employment service (EURES)
- Finding a job based on my skills and competences

Editor: Nezi

Editor: Michaela

STEP 4 IT

Working in another country

Tips and tricks

In the 21's century we have a widespread idea: you must work in another country if you want to earn more money and follow your dream. It's a good idea and in European Union, we have many opportunities for this, but this decision is not easy.

First of all, you must to ask this question to yourself. Will it be better if you leave your country and start a new life in a strange one? What are the opportunities and the dangers?

Let's see the facts. The answer is not just black or white. In the EU we have many opportunities and tools to live a better life.

Strength:

You can earn more money
The salary is better (many countries)
You have many opportunities to find a job
You have a chance to start a new life

expenditure)
Identity problem (the other country is not your country and your culture, maybe you will have some adaptation problem)
Your country lost a good worker when you go abroad
maybe you must to do undervalued job

You can follow your dream
You can build a career
You can learn and practice the language
You can start a new life
You know another culture

Treats:

Cheaper taxes
Different expenditures and incomes
Victim of stereotypes
Lost in Europe
Have to be self-reliant
We collect some tips and tricks if you decide to work in abroad.

First of all, You must research the country's income and taxes. (flat price, income

Weakness:

Cheaper life (you must research the other country' average income and

Opportunities:

How to make your educational choice

To make your educational choice, you have to consider some very important things.

First of all, you must think about what you are interested in. Then, have to find the balance between what you want to learn, and what you be able to living from.

It is also important to get information about the needed qualification in the labour market.

After that, you have to search for school. You can make selection between the schools based on its location, and how much that you have to pay for it. If it's far from you, you have to calculating the transportation and the house renting cost.

Do's and Don'ts on a CV

Your CV is your most important tool while looking for opportunities, be that a job or anything else. Here are some tips to improve your chances.

1. You should make your CV by hand, the goal is to make it stand out.
2. It should start with your name in BIG letters, the people who will read it need to see your name.
3. The second part should be a brief description of yourself - while should they hire you?
4. The next section is about your experiences and education. The most recent elements are the first. Only include the relevant items, your high school does not matter, unless it was specialized.
5. Your cover letter needs to be personalized every time, It can only be about fifteen sentences long, you have that long to convince your target to give you a chance at an interview.

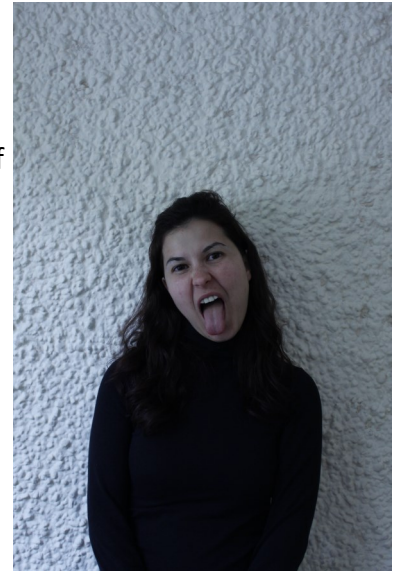

The European employment service (EURES)

It is a cooperation network designed to facilitate the free movement of workers within the 28 EU countries, plus Iceland, Switzerland, Lichtenstein and Norway.

The network is coordinated by the European Commission, and partners include, public employment services, trade unions and employers organization. At the EURES job mobility portal, job-seekers can search advertised position by occupation, location, keyword or date.

EURES is also a meeting point for employers and for job seekers. CV can be based on the site and the employers can look for suitable applicants and get in touch with them easily. The site contains details in a wide range of practical, legal and administrative question.

Designer: Estera

Finding a job based on my skills and competences.

When we look for a job opportunity for us there are few things we need to have on mind, or few steps we need to take so we can succeed.

STEP 1.: We need to make evaluation assessment on our self, our skills competences, strengths and weaknesses.

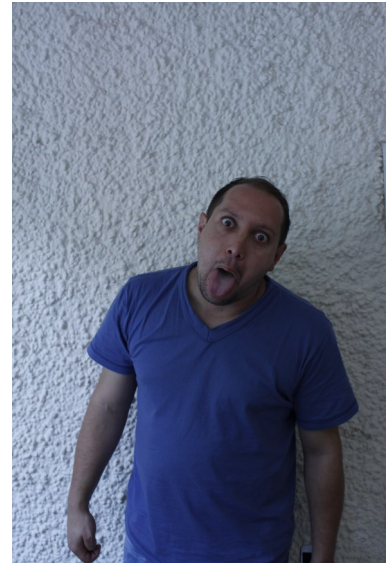

Going to our background and previous experience this way we can easily fulfill our CV later.

STEP 2.: We need to have our CV prepared carefully.

When we do the CV, we also need to be sure that it's not just completed but that our CV will be a mirror of who we are. That we will describe our skills, competences and experience using the right words that we have to be honest and convincing.

STEP 3.: We need to be sure that job we apply for is suitable and worth it especially if we need to move from one to another place.

STEP 4.:Use carefully what we are going to wear and how we are go-

Designer: Bogi

