E-COMMERCE BUSINESS

The process of learning how to create your own store is tricky but possible.

E-COMMERCE BUSINESS

Everyone can start their own online e-com business. The most difficult part is choosing the right model and platform. The easiest way is to start selling your supplies on eBay, Amazon or similar platforms. To start off you only need a bank account, ~300$ and a good product of your choice.

The following steps can be started by finding a manufacturer you will be buying from. You're looking for someone who can provide you with a good quality product for a smaller price than the market has.

The product itself has to be durable, trendy and interesting enough. You can find some ideas about ongoing trends on a platform called "Google Trends". It's a tool which allows you to research the web searches history and make your decisions based on the statistics.

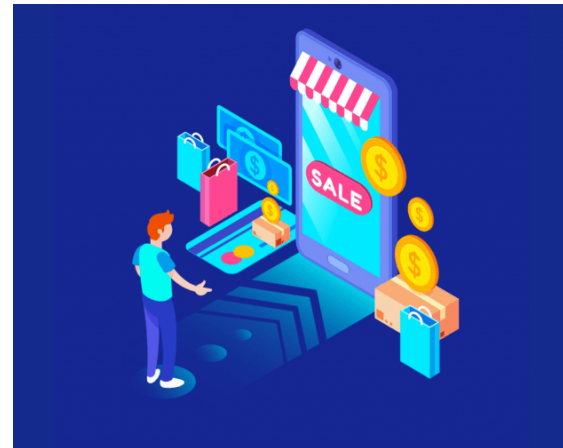

Let's say the product you chose for selling is vegan and vegetarian food. You can go to Google Trends and research different trends of this topic to find what in particular is interesting to people at this point of time.

We can see that a lot of countries are interested in vegan food at the moment, but India and a few others are concentrated mostly on vegetarian choice. This information allows you to decide who are your customers and what do they want.

The process of learning how to create your own store is tricky but possible. You need to learn each day, watch videos, research the markets and products, test various strategies, try, fail, try again, and repeat the cycle until you succeed.

Be sure to find the e-commerce platform that works the best for you. There are plenty of those with slight variations. Find the one that suits your needs the best and start selling!

SELLING CLOTHES ON VINTED

Nowadays lots of people find ways to make easy money online. One such way is selling clothes on Vinted.

GET RICH OR DIE TRYING

The most important part of any online clothing business is the photos of the actual products.

Selling clothes on Vinted

Nowadays lots of people find ways to make easy money online. One such way is selling clothes on Vinted.

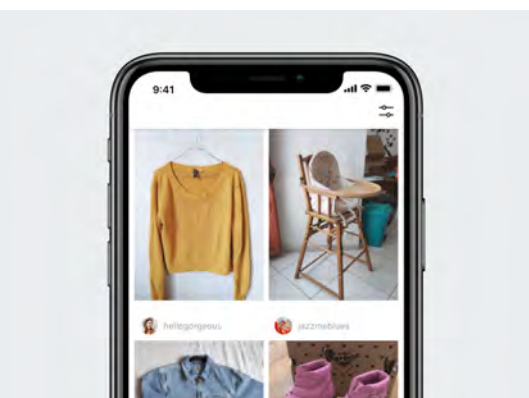

What exactly is Vinted?

It's an online marketplace and community that allows its users to sell, buy and swap secondhand clothing items and accessories. It's a simple way to earn money in short time.

- How to join Vinted? Registering with Vinted is free. You have the options to register using the mobile phone app version or on your desktop computer.
- Listing of products is also free. You can list as many items as you like without any restrictions. However, the quality of your listing will determine the amount of customers that you attract to your post.
- How to make sales on Vinted? First of all you have to select the items that you'll be going to sale. Make sure that the items are not damaged, they should be in a good condition. In addition you have to check if this stuff is trending at that particular moment.
- The most important thing is taking the photos. Take care that you have a perfect background for your photography (white wall or professionally looking composition) and natural lighting. If you don't have that - photos can end up greenish in color and dark.

- Furthermore you have to create an accurate description of your product. You have to describe what is the most significant property of this product: the size, the material, the condition. Don't forget to use hashtags! This will help people in finding your products and will attract new customers.
- A trick to get people to know who you are is to follow as many people as you can. This will promote your closet and you will most likely gain followers. More followers - more people will get notified when you put an item up for sale.
- Last but not least is that you have to think about what is currently on the trend of sales. Maybe wedding dresses would sell well on May because most weddings happen at May? Maybe the "winter is coming" and the sweaters are in demand?

Successful sellers can typically make ~250€ a month selling clothes on Vinted and if you dedicate yourself even further - you can definitely increase the earnings. With all of these tips in mind you can make easy money in quite a short time.

BECOME A SOCIAL MEDIA INFLUENCER

Nowadays positive, cheerful, charismatic and good-looking people get a lot of attention. Some of them became influencers in the social media platforms. They can do everything and get attention and people usually don't doubt what they do and rarely judge them.

The ways of becoming one are various, but most of the time its about physical looks and consuming a product or visiting a popular destination. A new tourist attraction which in the case of Chernobyl mini series 2019, the central became an attraction.

Another popular method is taking a challenge and doing something crazy or risky.

One of the most useful ways is to get someone to film you with a secret camera and you go around a big city, Stop people and ask them stupid or uncomfortable questions and manage to get their reactions. There are many travel influencers who make their photos around popular places and make short videos about their experience.

There are others who review our products sent to them by companies or some kind of product boxes and say that they are worth it, because they are worth it because they receive many products and most of the times, they give positive reviews.

There are video game influencers or streamers who are usually followed by hundreds to hundreds of thousands of viewers on streaming platforms.

One of the ways for someone to start being and influencer is by doing something unique or just taking part in a new trend. Even if there are real life threats to the person, risk could be worth it if calculated correctly.

BUY LOW SELL HIGH

In case you're searching for a side hustle to make some additional money to fill your pockets, you have a huge amount of choices.

Truth to be told, a lot of individuals are making an extraordinary pay selling things they find at lower costs. That, yet there are numerous people who even do this on their vacation, enabling them to make enough cash to continue them without walking through the traffic to and from a 9-5 occupation consistently. So... it very well may be a side salary or a full-time business.

In all actuality, you can purchase and sell pretty much anything. There are such a significant number of things being sold at second hand store, yard deals, closeout destinations, online locales, and on leeway racks at retail establishments that you could possibly sell yourself.

You can likewise hit up well known stores for freedom or markdown things and sell them. It's called retail exchange.

Be that as it may, that doesn't mean each item will fundamentally present to you a similar sort of income. You need to ensure the items you're selling are sought after. Further, you need to ensure you're ready to sell at a value point that will assist you with understanding an average benefit.

Here are the best items to buy and sell for a profit:

1. Anything small
2. Anything big

Where to buy items to resell:

1. Craigslist
2. Wholesale
3. Flea Market
4. Home
5. Garage sales

Further, you want to make sure you're able to sell at a price point that will help you realize a decent profit. And finally, there are always shipping costs and listing fees to consider, not to mention your time dedicated to this side gig.
